Since 1999, nepc has helped small businesses by being a part-time computer expert for them.

Every business is unique: from one computer upwards, bespoke support is given in all aspects of ICT.

You can employ your own computer expert who can turn up on a regular basis to sit alongside employees at all levels and help solve their queries such as:

improving word-processing

getting to grips with customer databases

email and file management

advising on future ICT purchases

checks, repairs and setting-up of equipment

BECAUSE nepc DOES NOT SELL COMPUTERS OR SOFTWARE...

ALL ADVICE IS ENTIRELY INDEPENDENT AND COULD SAVE YOU MONEY

The ICT expert every Small Business needs and CAN afford
